PREFACE

Dearest Hallmarkites

Summer Vacation is a welcome break- a breather from fixed schedule. It's the time to play, rest, relax and recharge. But as you know 'All play and no work makes Jack a mere toy', your teachers have created 'Question Banks for Periodic Test-1' to facilitate you prepare for your forthcoming exams.

- The Question Banks (QBs) are in accordance with the Blue Prints of the Periodic Tests-1 of your respective subjects. You get to know the Complete Layout, the Typology of the questions, and the Terminology used in the Question Paper.
- They will help you avoid mugging up your syllabus and forgetting at the time of writing the exam. In a way, it will be a great learning exercise for your exams.
- The more you are accustomed to sitting for a period of time, answering test questions, and pacing yourself, the more comfortable you will feel when you actually sit down to write the exam." These QBs are a good way to practise Writing and work on your Time Management.
- You are more likely to retain something if you learn it spaced over time. These QBs will stimulate your revision and studying and encourage earlier learning and so space out learning, which is likely to improve retention.
- Make sure you revise the Syllabus of Periodic Tests-1 before attempting the QBs. You should find a quiet spot where you won't be disturbed. You can even ask a parent, sibling or friend to act as an invigilator.

“The best inheritance parents can give their children is a few minutes of their time each day.”

A Few Guidelines For Parents To Make the Long Summer Break Fruitful:

- “Knowledge is Power”. Therefore encourage your child to cultivate the reading habit because it not only enhances the knowledge acquired but also develops the vocabulary, language skills and improves spellings.
- “A healthy mind lives in a healthy body”. Encourage your child to go out and play because sports instil discipline, generate sporting spirits, and channelize energies constructively.
- Communication skills play a pivotal role in grooming the overall personality of the children. Converse with your child preferably in English to help him / her get comfortable with the language. Encourage your child to read children’s magazines like Magic Pot, Sanctuary Cubs, Highlights Champs, Kids Explore, Chandamama, Dindima, etc.
- Spend quality time with your child engaging him / her in activities based on enhancing his / her powers of observation and imagination.
- Encourage your child to play board games e.g. Chess, Ludo, Carrom, etc.
- Encourage your child to do the activities himself / herself and allocate a specific time to do homework everyday.
- Make sure your child has a quiet, well-lit place to do Summer Break Assignment.
- Avoid having your child do work with the television on or in places with other distractions, such as people coming and going.
- When your child asks for help, provide guidance, not answers. If the homework is meant to be done by your child alone, stay away.
- Be positive about homework, Tell your child how important school and its work is. The attitude you express about homework will be the attitude your child acquires.
- Reward progress in homework. If your child has been successful in homework completion and is working hard, celebrate that success with a special event (e.g., a pizza party, a walk, a trip to the park) to reinforce the positive effort.

Wishing you all happy times together!!!

Happy Holidays!

Q.1 Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

Peter was most dreadfully frightened; he rushed all over the garden, for he had forgotten the way back to the gate. He lost one of his shoes among the cabbages, and the other shoe among the potatoes. He ran on and went faster, but unfortunately, he ran into a gooseberry net, and got caught. Peter thought his end was near and shed big tears; but his sobs were overheard by some friendly sparrows, who flew to him in great excitement, and begged him to save himself. Mr. McGregor came up with a sieve, which he planned to pop upon the top of Peter; but Peter wriggled out just in time. He rushed into the tool shed, and jumped into a can.

Mr. McGregor was quite sure that Peter was somewhere in the tool shed, perhaps hidden underneath a flowerpot. He began to turn them over carefully, looking under each. Soon, Peter sneezed—‘Kertyschoo!’ Mr. McGregor was after him in no time, and tried to put his foot upon Peter, who jumped out of window, upsetting three plants. The window was too small for Mr. McGregor, and he was tired of running after Peter. He went back to his work. Peter sat down to rest; he was out of breath and trembling with fright, and he not the least idea which way to go.

After a time he began to wander about, going lippity-lippity, not very fast, and looking all round. He found a door in a wall; but it was locked, and there was no room for a fat little rabbit to squeeze underneath. An old mouse was running in and out over the stone was running in and out over the stone doorstep, carrying peas and beans to her family in the wood. Peter asked her the way to the gate, but she had such a large pea in her mouth that she could not answer. He went back towards the tool shed, but suddenly, quite close to him, he heard the noise of a hoe- scr-r-itch, scratch, scratch, scritch. Peter scuttered underneath the bushes. But soon, as nothing happened, he came out, and climbed upon a wheelbarrow and peeped over.

Q.2 Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow:

‘No, we haven’t! they replied.

‘Have you seen a brown cat around here?’ she asked an old man drinking tea in a teashop. ‘His name is Kappi.’

‘No, I haven’t he replied.

Dip Dip now came to a road that went up a little hill.

She wheeled herself up, panting a little.

‘Have you seen a brown cat around her?’ she asked a woman hanging clothes to dry.

‘Is that him?’ the woman asked, pointing.

Dip Dip turned to see a brown streak disappearing down the hill.

‘Kaapi!’ Dip Dip cried.

Down the hill she rolled, behind the cat.

Kappi ran past houses, jumped over dustbins and darted around bushes.

He sprang past the old man drinking tea in a teashop.

He leapt past the people digging the road.

Not far from Dip Dip’s house, Kappi stopped, flicked his tail and jumped up a tree. He settled himself comfortably on a high branch.

Dip Dip came to a stop under the tree. ‘You crazy cat! she panted.

‘Come down!’

But Kappi only began to lick himself clean.

What could Dip Dip do now?

She was tired and she was hungry. She opened her lunchbox and saw.....

‘Fish curry! This will bring Kappi down. Kappi, do you want some fish?’ cried Dip Dip and lifted up her box to show Kappi.

Fish! Kappi looked down.

But suddenly, Kappi was frightened to climb down.

‘Meow’, he said pitifully. Meeaaaow!’

‘What?’ Dip Dip shouted. ‘You don’t expect me to come and get you, do you?’

‘Meeaaaow!’ said Dip Dip. I am coming. Don’t move!’

Dip Dip wheeled herself close to the tree, where a branch hung low.

She used her arms to pull herself up.

‘Now, come here, Kappi, you silly cat,’ she called.
